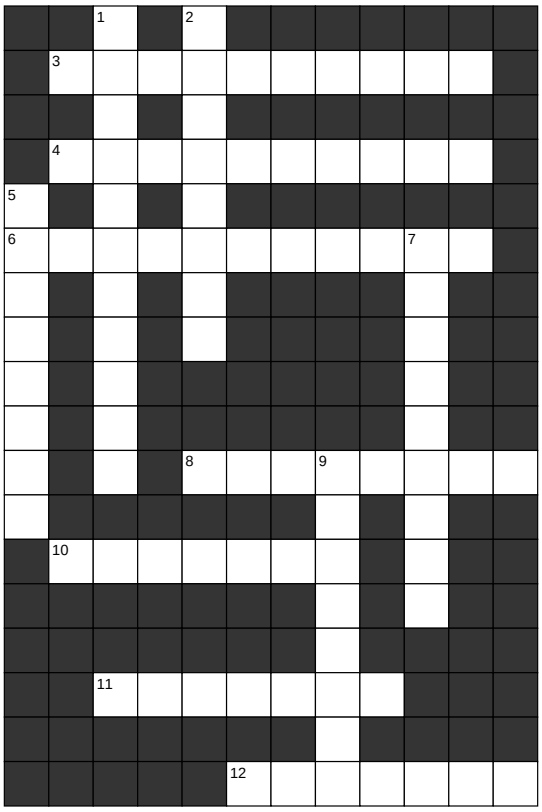
Logical Operators

Crossword - Chapter review

Use chapter concepts to solve the clues. Omit spaces and punctuation in the grid.



Across

3. Each _____ produces a boolean.

4. Logical _____ compose boolean results.

6. Print still requires _____; semicolons still separate statements.

8. _____ and Comparisons gave expressions truth values.

10. Logical operations compose _____ results.

11. _____ operations compose boolean results.

12. The evaluator decides when it needs to evaluate both operands and when the left _____ alone determines the result.

Down

1. Booleans and _____ gave expressions truth values.

2. The evaluator decides when it needs to evaluate both _____ and when the left operand alone determines the result.

5. The names `and`, `or`, and `not` are now reserved _____ keywords.

7. The _____ decides when it needs to evaluate both operands and when the left operand alone determines the result.

9. This is also why the precedence of `!` is the same as `not` here, even if another _____ gives `!` different rules.